

Shopping

Giftarama

Located in the main lobby and in some corridors you will find 12-15 vendors selling items from purses to art work and other unique items

Fine Arts

Beautiful paintings by Armenian artists worth stopping in to view. All reasonably priced to add to your home or office. More details to follow.

Nigolian Rug and Boutique Shop

This room not only houses a wonderful variety of Oriental Rugs, but two other specialty vendors you do not want to miss. More details to come.

Grandma's Attic

As they say "It's New to You" special selection of previously owned items. Looking for that special piece of glassware, china or book shelf, it might be here. Take a minute and stop in; you might be surprised on what you will find.

dderou@yahoo.com

Finders Keepers Emporium

A fantastic selection of new and gently used children's items anything from DVDs to high chairs and kid games.

HARADC@aol.com

Country Store

Specials on unique Armenian and Middle Eastern items such as Tavloo Boards and Armenian coffee cups. A variety of package cheeses, olives, basterma, soujouk and breads are just a few of the items you will be able to purchase.

Cadman931@aol.com

St. John's Book Store

Books, CDs and DVDs on a variety of Armenian subjects; a wide variety of Armenian music, in addition used books on Armenian topics, imported handcrafted gift items from Armenia and check out some of the special "Noah's Ark" themed items coming in from Armenia.

If you have any questions or if you would like to get involved in helping with this program please contact Paul Yousoufian at 313-310-3508 or pramy1@gmail.com