Lector: Harry Avagian

Welcome!

We welcome you to the Divine Liturgy / Soorp Badarak and invite all who are Baptized and Chrismated in, or are in communion with, the Armenian Church to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If you are new to our parish and would like information about our many parish groups, please ask any Parish Council member on duty at the lobby desk. Make certain you sign our Guest Book before you leave so we can be in touch. Enter to worship the Lord Jesus Christ who loves you and depart with His love to serve others.

TODAY'S GOSPEL: Mark 16:2-8

And very early on the first day of the week they went to the tomb when the sun had risen. And they were saying to one another, "Who will roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?" And looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back; for it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were amazed. And he said to them, "Do not be amazed; you seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen, he is not here; see the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him, as he told you." And they went out and fled from the tomb; for trembling and astonishment had come upon them; and they said nothing to any one, for they were afraid.

WHAT TO DO WITH A BLESSED NUSHKHAR? Take it home and place it in a jar of rice, bulghur wheat, lentils, flour, sugar, salt or any dry grain or pasta. The Nushkhar will keep the flavors and foods of the home prepared with these dry ingredients filled with Christ's blessings for always.

HOME BLESSINGS . . . Call the church office to arrange to have Der Hayr come and bless your home. It is a pious custom to begin the liturgical year with the blessings of our Lord's Resurrection.

An Easter Sermon

Are there any who are devout lovers of God?
Let them enjoy this beautiful bright festival!
Are there any who are grateful servants?
Let them rejoice and enter into the joy of their Lord!
Are there any weary from fasting?
Let them now receive their due!

If any have toiled from the first hour,
let them receive their reward.
If any have come after the third hour,
let them with gratitude join in the feast!
Those who arrived after the sixth hour,
let them not doubt; for they shall not be short-changed.
Those who have tarried until the ninth hour,
let them not hesitate; but let them come too.
And those who arrived only at the eleventh hour,
let them not be afraid by reason of their delay.
For the Lord is gracious and receives the last even as the first.
The Lord gives rest to those who come at the eleventh hour,
even as to those who toiled from the beginning.
To one and all the Lord gives generously.
The Lord accepts the offering of every work.
The Lord honors every deed and commends their intention.
Let us all enter into the joy of the Lord!

First and last alike, receive your reward.
Rich and poor, rejoice together!
Conscientious and lazy, celebrate the day!
You who have kept the fast, and you who have not,
rejoice, this day, for the table is bountifully spread!
Feast royally, for the calf is fatted.
Let no one go away hungry.
Partake, all, of the banquet of faith.
Enjoy the bounty of the Lord's goodness!

Let no one grieve being poor,
for the universal reign has been revealed.
Let no one lament persistent failings,
for forgiveness has risen from the grave.
Let no one fear death,
for the death of our Saviour has set us free.
The Lord has destroyed death by enduring it.
The Lord vanquished hell when he descended into it.
The Lord put hell in turmoil even as it tasted of his flesh.
Isaiah foretold this when he said,
"You, O Hell, were placed in turmoil when he encountering you below."

Hell was in turmoil having been eclipsed.
Hell was in turmoil having been mocked.
Hell was in turmoil having been destroyed.
Hell was in turmoil having been abolished.
Hell was in turmoil having been made captive.
Hell grasped a corpse, and met God.
Hell seized earth, and encountered heaven.
Hell took what it saw, and was overcome by what it could not see.
O death, where is your sting?
O hell, where is your victory?

Christ is risen, and you are cast down!
Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen!
Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice!
Christ is risen, and life is set free!
Christ is risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead.
For Christ, having risen from the dead,
is become the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.
To Christ be glory and power forever and ever. Amen!

The Easter Lily

For many, the beautiful trumpet-shaped white flowers symbolize purity, virtue, innocence, hope and life—the spiritual essence of Easter.

Often called the “lilies of hope,” lilies in the Garden of Christ’s agony. Traditional beautiful white lilies drops of Christ’s ground in his final deep distress. this tradition at Easter their altars and surges with masses of memorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and hope of life everlasting.

“white-robed apostles were found growing Gethsemane after the resurrection. Tradition has it that the lily sprang up where sweat fell to the ground during the hours of sorrow and Churches continue the tradition by banking Easter Lilies, to commemorate the resurrection of Jesus Christ and hope of life everlasting.

Most importantly, the pure white lily has long been closely associated with the Virgin Mary. In early paintings, the Angel Gabriel is pictured extending to the Virgin Mary a branch of pure white lilies, announcing that she is to be the mother of the Christ Child. In other paintings, saints are pictured bringing vases full of white lilies to Mary and the infant Jesus. St. Joseph is depicted holding a lily-branch in his hand, indicating that his wife Mary was a virgin.

Our Church tradition tells us that when the Virgin Mary’s tomb was visited three days after her burial, it was found empty save for bunches of majestic white lilies. Early Church fathers and writers as well as iconographers [religious artists] have included the lily as a symbol, particularly of the Annunciation [as visibly shown in the icon on our side altar], and images of the Resurrection of the Virgin, the pure white petals signifying her spotless body and the golden anthers her soul glowing with heavenly light.

Whether given as a gift or enjoyed in your own home, the Easter lily, along with other Easter flowers, serves as a beautiful reminder that Easter is a time for rejoicing, celebrating and praising Christ with His Victory of Life over death.

DAUGHTERS OF VARTAN HOSTING RECEPTION FOR BARONESS CAROLINE COX

The Detroit Chapter of the Daughters of Vartan is hosting a Reception for Baroness Caroline Cox on Tuesday April 30, 2013. It will take place in the Vartan Room at St. John Armenian Church from 5:30 – 7:30 pm. It is open to the public. There is no charge.

Lady Cox will be in the Detroit area on April 27, 2013 to give the Commencement Address for the School of Health Sciences and School of Nursing at Oakland University. She was awarded an honorary degree of Doctorate of Humanities Honoris Causa by Oakland University. Her global humanitarian efforts led Oakland University's School of Nursing's REACH (Research, Education and Advocacy for Children's Health) to name an endowed chair in her honor. They are working to establish a partnership with the American University in Armenia to provide student-faculty exchanges.

Baroness Cox was appointed a Life Peer of the British House of Lords by Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher in 1982 and served as Deputy Speaker of the House from 1985 – 2005. She is now Chancellor of Liverpool Hope University and Vice President of the Royal College of Nursing.

She has become one of Britain's most outspoken activists for human rights, is a defender of human rights in the House of Lords, United Kingdom, and is a distinguished educator and author. She is the chief executive of Humanitarian Aid Relief Trust (HART). She is also a strong supporter of self-determination for the Armenians of Nagorno-Karabakh.

On February 15, 2006 she was awarded the Mkhitar Gosh Medal by the President of the Republic of Armenia Robert Kocharyan. The Daughters of Vartan awarded Lady Cox their first Humanitarian of the Year Award in July 2009.

APRIL 24: A DUAL REMEMBRANCE AT ST. JOHN'S

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 2013, 7:00 PM

St. John Armenian Church will commemorate the 98th Anniversary of the Armenian Genocide on Wednesday, April 24th at 7:00 pm. A solemn Requiem Service will be offered in memory of the one and one half million Armenian souls who perished at the hands of the Ottoman Turkish Empire during 1915 and thereafter. We will also honor the survivors of the Genocide residing in the metro Detroit area. Following the requiem service, clergy, deacons, choristers and congregation will walk outdoors for the madagh blessing and wreath-laying ceremony.

A much-awaited event that will take place this evening is the dedication of the new monument (artist's rendering pictured at right) on our grounds adjacent to the Martyrs Monument. This new monument will bring to mind the countless innocent Armenians who perished in the forgotten Armenian Genocide – Pogroms in Azerbaijan that began 25 years ago in February 1988 in Kirovabad, and continued in Sumgait and Baku until 1990. After two years of fundraising and planning, the community of St. John Armenian Church proudly erects this monument so that Armenians and non-Armenians alike will come to know about this modern-day Genocide, with its proper recognition and place in history.

After the dedication service, the traditional madagh dinner in memory of our blessed martyrs will be served in the Cultural Hall. All are welcome to share in this complimentary memorial meal.

Noted author Chris Bohjalian (pictured at left) will speak at 8:00 pm. The grandson of Armenian survivors, Bohjalian will share his thoughts on this solemn occasion with reflections on The Sandcastle Girls, which was published in July 2012 to great acclaim. It is a love story set in the midst of the Armenian Genocide. It debuted at #7 on the New York Times best-seller list. USA Today called it “stirring ... a deeply moving story of survival and enduring love.”

At 6:00 pm, prior to the Requiem Service, Mr. Bohjalian will be available to sign copies of his book, which may be purchased at that time.
