

Catering Marketing/Event Planner/
Food & Beverage Director Wanted

Banquet facility with liquor license and full service kitchen in Southfield, Michigan seeks a multi-tasking Catering Marketing/Event Planning/Food & Beverage Director to work with multiple caterers, and an in-house custodial director and staff to accommodate functions for events of 10 to 600 people (Multiple banquet/meeting rooms of various sizes in our facility). Must have good customer communication skills and marketing experience to seek and secure new sales for business and social meetings, event planning, weddings and other special occasions. Experience in food safety and alcohol management preferred. With your résumé, please include your experience, qualifications, references, and your envisioned and/or previously accomplished catering marketing plans. Compensation is commensurate with credentials presented. You must also be bondable, have a Michigan driver's license, and undergo a reference or security check.

Resumes must be received by June 24, 2011. Please submit all information and any questions by email to:

southfieldcatering@yahoo.com